

LOOKING FOR SOME NEW SKILLS?

Are you thinking about the future?
Do you want training in a particular field?

Southern Edge Training runs a completely confidential training and support program for people working in the sex industry, who would like to develop skills that can assist them in obtaining alternative employment on leaving the industry.

We can help you gain new skills, and explore a range of training and employment options. We offer group training sessions and one-on-one assistance based on your individual needs - all in a relaxed, supportive and empowering environment. We provide a mix of nationally recognised training, job search support, personal development programs, and one-on-one support tailored to your specific career goals.
